Review of financial info

SRE 2400

Engagements to Review
Historical financial Statements.

SRE 2410

Review of Interim
financial Info performed
by the Independent
Auditor of the Entity.

SRE 2400

Q1. What is a Review?

- ① "Review" is a limited assurance engagement.
- ② Limited assurance is a level of assurance where engagement risk is reduced to an acceptable level but where the risk is more than reasonable assurance engagement to provide a basis for expressing a conclusion.
- ③ It involves fewer procedures and gathers SAAE on basis of which limited conclusions can be drawn up.
- ④ However, "review" is related to f.c.t. prepared on basis of historical financial info just like an audit.

Q2. What are the objectives of SRE 2400 and who can do it?

following are the objectives:

- ① To obtain limited assurance, by making inquiry and performing analytical procedures about whether the f.c.t.

- ② Report on the FS as a whole and communicate as required by SRE 2400.
- ③ It can be conducted by any practitioner.
- ④ In cases where limited assurance cannot be obtained the practitioner shall :
 - disclaim or withdraw, if possible.
 - the opinion

Q3. What are the factors affecting the acceptance and continuance of client relationship & review engagement?

Unless required by law and Regulation, the practitioner shall not accept a review engagement if:

- ① The practitioner is satisfied

(i) That there is a national purpose for the engagement.

(ii) That a review engagement
would be appropriate in the circumstances.

The practitioner may recommend other engagement like audit or compilation eng. as appropriate.

for other work under separate agreement.

- ⑥ the practitioner has reason to believe that relevant ethical requirements, including independence, will not be satisfied.
- ⑦ the practitioner's preliminary understanding of the engagement circumstances indicates that info needed to perform the review engagement is likely to be unavailable or unreliable.
- ⑧ the practitioner has cause to doubt management's integrity such that it is likely to affect proper performance of the review
- ⑨ Management or TCMY impose a limitation on the scope of the practitioner's work resulting in the practitioner disclaiming a conclusion on the f.st.

Q4. What are the precondition for Accepting a Review Engagement?

- following are the precondition:
① Acceptability of FRF applied in preparation of f.st.
- ② Agreement of management in acknowledging and understanding its responsibility for preparation of FS & internal control.
- ③ To provide access to Access to all info which mgt. is aware that is relevant for the preparation of FS

Add' info that the practitioner may request from mgt.
Unrestricted access to the persons within the entity from whom the practitioner determines necessary to obtain evidence.

- ④ If above 1, 2, 3 are not present
Practitioner shall discuss with TCWG & request for changes
- If changes cannot be made Practitioner → NOT ACCEPT THE ENGAGEMENT,
unless required by law.
- If he accepts such engagement,
then such engagement does not comply with the practitioner shall not include any reference within the practitioner's report to the review
having been conducted in accordance with this SRE.

Q5. Procedure for performing the Review eng?

Step①: Materiality in a Review of FS

① He (practitioner) shall determine the materiality for the FS as a whole and apply the same in designing the procedure.

② He shall revise the materiality for the FS as a whole in case if he becomes aware of any info during his review which have caused the practitioner to determine a different amount initially.

Step② Obtaining Understanding of the Entity

He shall obtain an understanding of the entity and its environment and the AFRF to identify areas in the FS where MMS are likely to arise and thereby provide a basis for designing procedures to address those areas.

Step③ Designing and Performing Procedures

① In obtaining SAAE as the basis for a conclusion on the FS as a whole, the practitioner shall design and perform inquiry and analytical procedures:-

(a) To address all material items in the

FS, including disclosures

(b) To focus on

addressing areas

in the FS

where material

misstatements

are likely to arise.

② In particular, the practitioner may perform inquiry and analytical procedures for review engagements.

[Read (a) Inquiry & (b) Analytical Procedure]

Main book Pg 270

[Read why Inquiry/AP is imp.]

Pg. 271 [v.v.v. imp.]

Step④ Procedures to address specific circumstances

Read Related Parties, fraud, GC, work performed by others
Pg. 273 & 274 main book

Step⑤ Additional Procedures when the practitioner becomes aware that the FS are materially misstated

- ① If the practitioner becomes aware of the matters that causes him to believe that FS are materially misstated, he shall design and perform procedures to

(a) Conclude that the matter(s) is not likely to cause the FS as a whole to be materially misstated.

(b) Determine that the matter(s) or causes the FS as a whole to be materially misstated

- ② The practitioner will perform additional procedure if he believes that FS are materially misstated. what additional procedures to be applied is a matter of practitioner professional judgement.

- ③ These additional procedures may be :

Additional Inquiry or Analytical procedures, for eg, being performed in greater detail or being focused on the affected items.

Other types of procedures,
for example,
Substantive test of details or external confirmation.

Q6. What are the main WR for Review Engagement?
following are the main WR:

(a) that mgt has fulfilled the responsibility for preparation as per AFRF
